Consider also the grass-how every spire of it that grows has to hustle for a living.

Pres. Loubet has seen Naples and is in no haste to die. The president of a Chicago woman's club says "the cradle must go!" All right, but save the baby.

A discouraging feature of the baseball outlook is that half of the teams of each league lose every day, Two checkbooks with but a single bank account may be the death of love, as Nordica's case shows. It may be true that money stupefles the conscience, but disappointed greed for office sours the disposition. Panama wants to disband its army. As it is not going to have any revolu-

Mrs. Russell Sage says that Mr. Sage will not give up his residence in New York city, taxes or no taxes.

That settles it. Andrew Lang doesn't find George Ade funny. But what of that? Perhaps George Ade doesn't find Andrew

People who are disposed to discourage the practice of hitting a thing after it is down should not overlook the case of poor old steel.

Lang funny, either.

edness.

It might be well for the Japs to have a detachment of Russians constantly on hand to be placed in front when they pursue the enemy.

A Salt Lake girl received $4,000,000 years old. Her friends are now anxiously waiting for her to pick out her

A Chicago woman secured a divorce the other day thirty-six minutes after filing her bill. This may justly be regarded as rapid transit to single bless-

Probably a shortening of our political campaigns is one of the earthly impossibilities, but it would be a good thing if they were materially con-

In proof of Prof. Coe's assertion that baseball is a part of the religious life of a boy, it is only necessary to point to the career of the Rev. Will iam Sunday.

Lieut. Rutropoff was seriously wounded on the pontoon near Khussan the other day. It is said that he Khussed frightfully when the Japs amnutated the pontoon.

The president of the University of Michigan says the college graduates are to be the captains of industry of the future. Pass the pick and shovel to the self-made man.

Bass and trout fishing in early morning is now declared to be a mistake. as game fish do not rise before 8 o'clock. This will certainly increase the popularity of the sport.

The theory that boys are descended from monkeys has received an ugly setback. A Philadelphia gentleman possesses a monkey who washes himself with soap and water.

A Norwegian chemist has discovered a new and cheap process for making alcohol from sawdust. After this it may be easier to induce tramps to operate on the wood piles.

It is officially announced that "the last obstacle" in the way of the canal project has been removed. Evidently several thousand cubic yards of earth and stone do not count as "an ob-

Pennsylvania is considering a proposal to equip herself with voting machines at a cost of $2,823,500. The people are used to expensive political machines over there and aren't a bit

A man may feel like 30 cents, and be told by his wife that he's worth less than a penny, but if he gets hurt in a railroad accident he never sues for anything less than $5,000 .- Boston

Young Willie K. Vanderbilt hasn't broken an automobile record of any kind for nearly three weeks. Young Willie must be rapidly nearing the point at which he will consider life a mere waste of time.

A Louisville man of the name of Smith invites the entire Smith family of the United States to hold its next reunion in that city at his expense. Either he is a man of prodigious wealth or he underestimates the size of the family.

A man who had $2,000,000 and who was heir to a lot more committed suicide in Chicago the other day. No doubt he could, if he had cared to do so, have given the world some important particulars tending to prove that "money is not all."

If lovers everywhere should express their opinion of the St. Louis judge who has just handed down a decision to the effect that 11 o'clock at night is long enough for any beau to stay with his sweetheart, they might all have to go to jall for contempt of

Somebody says that the Parisians furnish the gowns and the American takes three figures for a gown the American father at once becomes an active factor in the little epigram.

Now and then some scientific perpicion, bitter with the wormwood of son registers himself as an agnostic | jealousy. He decided to call on Jessie | Miss Carden will accept my escort," | cuniary circumstances of his paby way of intimating that the reason and learn his fate. His heart leaped said John. why he doesn't claim to know any when Jessle came forward to meet thing is because he knows so much. him. There was tenderness in her

If a "coed" of Cornell kisses a man it will cost her $2. Still, with reasonable restraint, she can dodge the fine by letting the man do all the kissing.

That lonesome old man who married a widow with thirteen children ought to be reasonably entertained for the remainder of his days.

THE REPORTED HER REPORTED HER PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF TH By FREDERICK UPHAM ADAMS Author of "The Kidnapped Millionaires," "Colonel Monroe's Dectrine," Etc.

A. J. DERXEL BIDDLE

"I have none. Can I do anything?"

beach twelve miles south of here,

-I-shall be deligted to be your es-

"You may call at S o'clock, if you will," said Jessie, without raising her

It was ten o'clock in the morning

"Present my compliments to Miss

"Miss Carden is not at home," re-"No, thank you. Very sorry, I am sure." His face grew dark, but his

Gen. Marshall Carden paid a visit

"I have something to say to you,

"WELL, YOU KEEP AWAY FROM HER!

ily; and, God willing, you will inherit

"I will explain to you frankly what lars he said he knew nothing, except

"I don't wish to see him, papa," annovs me. He said he would call

Saturday and take me out riding, and

Gen. Carden looked greatly reliev vital to our weffare, Jessie, my dar ling. It might even-" Gen. Carden

"I do understand, papa, dear," know I can never like him, and I don't

Two weks passed, during which the was present, and Jessie introduced early, so I can't offer to escort Miss acquaintance with her, I shall ask

"Certainly, I will," laughed Jessie

Arthur Morris remained a few min-

CHAPTER EIGHT.

The Tragedy.

have to try, do I, papa?"

along the hard sand of the seashore, I are now a woman," he continued after and dismounted to rest and talk be- a pause. "You belong to a good fam-Jessle told him of the letter from a modest fortune. You are very beau-

her father, and with some pride talked | tiful, my pet, and it is natural you in Jessie's hand, and it appeared like has happened. I received a call yes-a wedge about to separate them. And terday from Mr. Randolph Morris. In why should it not? What right had he a casual way Mr. Morris spoke of you to aspire to the love of Jessie Carden, and sent his compliments. He ex-the daughter of a rich man; beautiful pressed regret that his family had beyond any woman he had ever seen? failed in an attempt to make your

The fear, which ofttimes became a visit to the country more enjoyable.

certainty that Jessie would pass be. Of course this greatly surprised me.

yond his reach, was the haunting ter- and when I pressed him for particu-

She had everything-youth, health, that Arthur had called and that you

"Let's climb Strawberry Hill and said Jessie, with much spirit. "He winding path, and they stood on the never so much as asked me if I cared crest of the bill. The broad Atlantic to go or not. So I went to visit Cou-lay to the east, and the island-dotted sin Edith, and when he called the clouds; above burned a bar of red- ed. "I am glad that Arthur has given

They stood silent for minutes checked himself. His face was drawn prehend.

under the spell of nature's grandest with a distress which Jessie was ly obscured the face of the sun, until said Jessie. "I will write and ask Mr.

and an attractive world. Accustomed | Carden. He kissed his daughter affecluxuries of comparative wealth, she On Sunday Jessie wrote a note to Ar-less, without attempting to analyze or chatted gaily for an hour or more.

justify her feetings. Jessie was not Jessie accepted his invitation to a re-favorably impressed with Arthur Mor- ception in the Morris mansion for Sat-

ris. There is a psychological barrier urday evening, and went under her young man's personality was of slight rich New Yorker was a frequent visit-importance at the moment, but Jessie or at the Bishop farmhouse. One evendid not like him-why, she neither ing John called when Arthur Morris Jessie at home. They chatted for an cigarette, "Miss Carden has accepted on the next Saturday. Had it not been company a party of New York friends for his presence, she would have en- who will spend the night on my yacht, Sam Rounds-who knew of every- Carden. If I may presume on your eyes and welcome in the clasp of the utes longer; then he gaily bade Jessie warm little hand which nestled for an adieu, shook hands with John Burt, deep of the lover's first cup of sus- I will meet voft with my friends."

father's escort.

its vanquished.

bay glowed in the colors of a glorious | maid told him I was out."

beauty, wealth and position. He had had refused to see him." Gen. Car-of the invitation from Randolph Mor- should have admirers.

plied the maid. Will you come in,

Carden," he said, offering his card.

asked John eagerly.

THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF THE CHAPTER SEVEN-Continued. "Yes, he has, and she's a beauty." he replied, with the air of one giving an expert opinion.

COPYRIGHT, 1902, BY FREDERICK UPHAM ADAMS

Naples has seen Pres. Loubet, and "Well, you keep away from her!" said the old man gruffly. "Let her with them. Do you think you could alone. She'll never have a dollar. Carden's ruined right now, but he doesn't girls all day, John?" know it. I do. What about this daughter?" he demanded, pausing in wise little girl forever," seld John. front of Arthur. "Is she stopping with a fervor which astounded him around here?"

"She is spending the summer at Bishop's-a farmhouse about five drooping eyes expressed no rebuke. "I miles from here," replied the son. Say, governor, you must write to cort," stammered John, far more Carden and say you've learned that confused than the subject of his his daughter is here, and that you and ardent compliment. "When will you your family will be delighted to meet | be ready, Jessie?" her socially, and will try to make her stay in the country agreeable."

"I'll do nothing of the kind," roared eyes. Randolph Morris He stormed and fumed for a while, and then wrote when the Morris trap stopped in front of the Bishop farmhouse. Morris was the letter, as his son knew he would looking his best. His eye was clear, from the beginning. "There it is!" he said as he handed and his smooth, plump face was tions it does not see the need of the envelope to Arthur. "For God's ruddy. sake, don't marry the girl!"

> Arthur Morris leaned back in the chair and laughed. "I have never spoken to her, governor," he said, putting the letter in | sir?" his pocket, "and I certainly don't contemplate matrimony.

Jessie was greatly excited when a her of the invitation which had been | I'll call some day soon." received and accepted. The general considered the incident a gratifying to the farm a week later. After dinrecognition of his increasing import. ner he invited Jessie to a walk, and bright light yellow over the remainance as a financier. Jessie knew little his manner told her that something der. of the business prestige such recogni- was impending. They paused to rest the opportunity to meet the famous both were silent. Morrises, and in despair over the gown she should wear.

The day after she received the note unsaid," began Gen. Carden, clearing from her father John Burt called, and his throat uneasily. Jessie looked they took their first horseback ride of | into his face with questioning eyes. the other day when she became 13 the summer. They galloped for miles 1 "You are nearly seventeen, Jessie, and neath the shade of pleasant trees.

ris. John looked at the slip of paper for of his dreams by day or night.

watch the sunset," suggested Jessie.

John helped Jessie up the steep, sunset. At the horizon was a mass of was reflected in the water of the bay, its are touched the line of the cloud.

Sharp as a knife, the black bank slow-

Jessie Carden's reception in the Morris manslon opened to her a new between vice and virtue; an instinct which places innocence on guard. The knew nor cared. She tactfully eluded remainder of the afternon with his

Three days later Arthur Morris called at the Bishop house and found hour or more, and he secured her

More than a week had passed. From thing that happened for miles about-

"Saddle my horse, John; let's ride!"

Delighted, John obeyed, and set

"Have you an engagement for Bat-himself stolidly to enjoy her presence

as they galloped along the beach.

urday?" asked Jessie.

joyed the expedition thoroughly.

instant in his.

she said.

shimmering in the rubescent glow.

age farm laborer.

youth and health-so had the aver- den paused.

delight the heart of a loyal New Eng-

The cool, salt breeze from the ocean, the aroma from fir and pine, and the odor from simmering clam and seaweed formed a trinity ambrosial enough to make an Apicius of an an-

For an hour or more they walked along the hard, smooth sand, erunching the shells under their feet; the ong of the sea in their ears, and its cool breath on their cheeks. Then the great gong sounded the signal for dinner and they turned to the grove.

"I have cousins who live near the "Mr. Morris must have been delaysaid Jessie. "I want to spend a day ed," observed Jessie as she glanced once more toward the harbor, "Come endure the company of three footish on; we won't wait for him."

They had a merry time over dinner. "I could enjoy the company of one As they came out from the grove they saw the Voltairs at anchor, her upper works glistening in the sunshine. Her when the words were uttered. A launch, crowded with passengers, was blush suffused Jessie's cheek, but her just leaving.

(To be continued.)

FISH SHAPED LIKE HAM BAGS. Jersey Visitor Spies an Old Acquaintance in the Aquarium.

"Ah, I see you have some hambag fish here," said a Jerseyman who was looking along the tanks in the aquarium, as he paused in front of one containing two fine adult specimens of the creature known hereabouts as the orange filefish.

There are few common fish that have not a variety of names, and the Jerseyman's name for the orange filefish is rather appropriate. The fish has somewhat the outline as well as the color of the yellow bags in which smoked hams were once put up. The two specimens in the aquarium are the survivors out of four taken in voice was quiet as he said: "Tell Miss letter came from her father notifying | Carden of my disappointment, and say | Gravesend bay in June last. One of them is yellow all over, the other is brown in color over three-quarters of the surface of its body and of a

The orange filefish is homely in tion entailed, but was delighted with under an arbor. For some moments shape and as thin-bodied as an ordinary flatfish, but unlike the flatfish in this respect, which swims flatwise, Jessie, which I wish could be left the filefish swims with its body edgewise in the water and commonly carrying its head more or less down. Semetimes when not swimming it drops its head so far that the fish seems to be standing on its head in the water. Odd in shape as it is and odd in action, and withal bright colored, it is a very striking creature, and the two specimens of it here are among the most attractive of the aquarium's

These two orange filefishes are the first that have ever been carried here through the winter, making a record for the species in captivity.-New York Sun.

Why Women "Rubber." As a finely dressed woman entered the "L" train every other woman in the car eyed her clothes closely. 'There," said a man to his wife, who eas making a close inventory of the such interest in other women's clothes Von see it everywhere-in parlors, at receptions and balls and to believe this is owing to men's fiver judgment as to what is proper. They know that to take note of another's dress is the height of bad manners, and they abstain from doing it." "It's very nice of you, of course, to praise your own sex so," said his wife; "but your explanation is utterly another's clothes is that every woman is practically a dressmaker, and when she sees a dress she views it with the interest of a professional."-Boston

Japanese Government. It is now quite well established that the Japanese government continued for over 2,500 years exactly the same in form as that of the Mahometan caliph and of modern Rome. chiefs of religion among the Japanese have been the chiefs of the kingdom much longer than in any other nation. The succession of the pontiff kings may be traced with certainty for more than 780 years before our era. The ecclesiastical emperor was called "Dairi," a name now used by the red of blood. To the zenith were you no more serious cause for dis- the people for the royal residence of spread the gorgeous tints with which pleasure," he said. You know little of the mikado or for the court itself. Unthe setting sun tinseled the closing business affairs, but you must know til recently the mikado was regarded curtains of night. Delicate greens that Randolph Morris is powerful; a as too sacred to be called by his right toned through the shades of orange good business friend, and a foe to be name. After the overthrow of the into rich amethyst, and against this feared. At the present moment I pontiffs the dairi was kept in honorflaunted the thousand graduations of slight of his son might be of vast con- treated with the utmost respect, for the spectrum. But the bar of red sequence in determining Randolph the people revered him as if he were above the dun cloud dominated. It Morris' decision in a matter most an idol.—New York Press.

The Restoration of Galveston. Galveston was destroyed by storm on Sept. 8, 1900. It was almost comspectacle. The sun dipped lower until quick to perceive, though not to com- pletely wiped out. There was no insurance. Eight thousand bodies-one seventh of the population-were under the ruins. In forty-five days the a red hemisphere, weird and unreal, Morris to call, and will treat him just city was entirely cleared, and almost glowered and quivered in the western as if nothing had happened. But I all of the wharfing had been permanently rebuilt. The commerce of the port for the next succeeding month-"Certainly not, my pet," said Gen, October-was greater than that in any previous October in the history from childhood to the comforts and tionately, and seemed greatly pleased. of Galveston shipping. In Galveston solidity was not sacrificed to was awed by the magnificent sensu- thur Morris. Two days later he called speed. The people were simply keyed ousness of the millionaire's palace, and Jessie received him in the old- up to the exigency. Baltimore could and by the pomp and splendor of its fashioned parlor. Both ignored the and would have moved at the same decorations and fittings. Neverthe- incident of the preceding week, and rate if it had got started on the momentum generated by a great calamity. Every day of delay, every unnecessary word of discussion, magnifles our disaster and diminishes our opportunity.-Baltimore News.

Rich Man and the Doctor. "The life of a rich man is worth more than the life of a poor man and the physician has a right to his further attentions, and spent the them. Arthur treated him with that charge the millionaire more for his services than he does the laborer," is airy tolerance which success grants to the opinion recently handed down by "By the way, Mr. Burt," said Ar. a Philadelphia judge, who went on to thur Morris, as he carelessly rolled a say: "The physician is unlike the mermy invitation to attend to-morrow's chant who has goods of different consent to be one of a coaching party clambake near Cohasset. I must ac- quality to sell at various prices. He must give his best service in every case. But it does not follow that the and attend the bake. We must start | service is worth the same in every

"Human life has a pecuniary value of variable quantity, greater in the John heard of the party, and drank you to drive her to the grove, where | millionaire than in the laborer. Thus the practitioner of common sense "I shall be more than pleased if makes out his bills to suit the petients."

> Defines Cancer. The peculiarity of cancer among diseases is that it consists in the rebellion and malignant behavior of certain parts of the body itself, not in the attacks of foreign enemies. Cancer, in fact, is a state of civil war to the body, a reign of terror pro-Churchill's Grove was famous for its | duced by outbreaks of murderous fury clambakes, and when John and Jessie on the part of revolutionists at one or drove into it the scene was one to more localities.

FRANCE'S ACTION AGITATES

Rome: Vatican authorities continue | Powers, which varied from that sent M. Nisard, the French Ambassador to the Vatican

The Pope said mass Sunday morning in the presence of sixty-four the rest of the day to consideration of King of Italy. the difficulties with France, reading fanily is still here.

to be agitated over the conflict with to the French government, is daily the French Government, growing out becoming more interesting. It seems STATE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION of the protest against President Lou- to be now certain, as was at first bet's visit to Rome and the recall of supposed, that the indiscretion was due to the Pricipality of Monaco, the Vatican's note to which was stronger than that addressed to the other Catholic states in consequence of the Vatican having been informed that Prince Italians and foreigners, and gave up Albert of Monaco intended to visit the

A further reason why the note to clippings from the newspapers on the the Principality of Monaco was more emphatic, it is said, was because The Vatican authorities hope that Prince Albert was the friend of Cap-M. Nisard will soon return to Rome, tain Dreyfus, who had worked against being influenced by the fact that his the French Government, are also be cause the Clerico-Nationalists were The question as to how L'Humanite in accord, if not in the same field of Paris became possessed of the with M. Jaures, the Socialist leader, note of protest, addressed to the other who originated the present agitation

A St. Peteraburg Dispatch Says That the Japs Have Turned Up "At Six Different New Places."

SEVEN KILLED IN AN OHIO EXPLOSION

Accident in a St. Louisan's Torpedo Will Pay Ransom for Surrender of and Fireworks Factory.

Findlay, Ohio: As a result of an exnew arrival's dress, "that is what I plant of which J. B. Ferris of St. to be at Benairos. Mohammed el Louis is president, here Sunday, seven | Torres, representative of the sultan of public conveyances. You never see and twelve or fifteen are badly in of Raisuli if Ion Perticaris, the Amerimen acting that way. I am inclined jured. From reports of the physician can, and Cromwell Varley, the Britten of the less severely injured may ish, captives, are handed over imme tneir bodies.

Sunday morning the residents of Findoly were startled by two explosions that shattered windows throughwrong. The reason women notice one | for miles around. Two magazines in | Sunday from Consul Gummere at Tan-

Most of the funerals occurred Monday subject of negotiations. The consul and business was generally suspend- general hopes to be able to report ed. Three bodies were found at a these terms to the state department distance of 300 feet from the scene very soon. of the explosion.

Will Pay Indian Claims in June.

of Indian Affairs Captain Tonner Wedment $74,000 toward the payment of more favorable. this claim against the Osage Indians background of lacework of clouds dread to incur his displeasure. Your able confinement by the mikado and of Oklahoma. There is at present an outstanding claim of $142,000 against due to Kansas City and St. Louis mercantile houses. Congress at its last those deceased died of consumption. ment of this claim out of tribal moneys secured as above mentioned.

Shell Strikes Torpedo Boat.

Tokio: During the reconnoissance off Port Arthur, made by Admiral Togo on Friday of last week, a shell hit the torpedo-boat destroyer Akat-

Throws Acid in Woman's Face. Anderson, Ind.: While stepping from her home here Friday night Mrs. Albert Nixon, wife of a business man, was struck in the face with a pint of and disfigured. Her assailant is un- morning.

Robbers Dynamite Safe. Bloomington, Ill.: The Post Office safe at Roberts was dynamited Thursday night and $275 secured. The rob-

Fire Destroys a Poorhouse. Kingston, N. Y .: The Ulster county poorhouse, three miles from New Palatz, was totally destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon. The loss is placed American flag, or any representation at $50,000. Three inmates who were of it, for advertisement purposes was missing were found later, and it is declared unconstitutional Tuesday by now known that no one was burned or the court of appeals in the case of injured.

Korea Cancels Russian Concessions. Tokio: Official notice is given that Korea has cancelled all treaties with of the National Association of Manu-Russia, and al concessions made to facturers Thursday David M. Parry of Russian subjects.

Feeley Jury Disagrees.

Butler, Mo.: After being out twentyfour hours, the jury in the Feeley murder trial failed to agree and were Bacon and Congressman Dalzelli and discharged by Judge Graves. Robert | Meyer spent Sunday at Fort Morgan. N. Feeley of Nevada, Mo., killed Mar- the guests of the officers of that place. tin Hoots, a farmer living near here, They left Sunday night for New Orabout a year ago. He claims self- lans. defense.

Capture Niuchwang Train. Niuchwang: Japanese troops, who ure of the Joint Scale Committee to marched inland from this point, de- reach a satisfactory agreement, 2,500 stroped four miles of the railroad and | coal miners in subdistrict No. 6 went captured a Russian supply train.

MOORISH SULTAN AGREES TO DEMANDS OF BANDITS

American and Englishman.

Tangler, Morocco: The shereef of plosion in the two drying rooms of Wazan left Sunday morning to meet the Lake Shore novelty company's Raisuli, the bandit chief, who is said persons are known to be dead, five Morocco at Tangier, has empowered more are so seriously hurt that re- the shereef to say that the governcovery is believed to be impossible. ment will grant all of the demands die as a result of blood poisoning dately. The soldiers have already from the potash that was driven into been withdrawn from the district where the bandits are located.

Washington: A very brief cable out the city. The concussion was felt gram came to the state department separate rooms at the novelty works gier, Morocco, which confirmed prelet go simultaneously with terrible vious reports that Ion Perdicaris, the reports. The exact cause of the ex- American citizen, who with his stepplosion is not definitely known. It is son, Cromwell Varley, a British subsurmised that one of the Sherwood ject, was kidnapped by bandits, are brothers, who were the only persons being well treated by the Moorish in the drying rooms, dropped a large brigands by whom they were kidnapbox of torpedoes, bpt this theory can pel. The authorities, according to the dispatch are in communication The property loss is $60,000. The with the bandits, and it is expected plant, it is said, will not be rebuilt. that the terms of the ransom are the Accident to Change Army Plans.

Mukden: News of the Japanes Washington: Acting Commissioner naval disaster was received here only Sunday. It is considered that this nesday said that the payments on the accounts for the mystery of the Jap Osage Indian traders' claim would be anese halt, and it is believed it comgin early in June. He said that there pletely changes the military situation. are now in the hands of the depart- rendering the Russian position much Twelve Die Within Week.

Matton, Ill.: Twelve funerals were the Osage Indians, most of which is held in this city last week, five of which took place Saturday. Seven of session made provision for the pay- This is the highest death rate in the history of the city, the monthly average being no greater than that of the past week.

Paris: The Tokio correspondent of the Petit Pariesien says that Americans have appointed a customs comsuki, killing one officer and twenty- missioner at Niuchwang to replace the Russian commissioner. Steal Jewels Worth $18,000.

Appoint American Customs Officer.

Chicago: Jewels valued at $18,000 were stolen from the residence of John W. Kiser, former president of the Monarch cycle company, between carbolic acid and frightfully burned last Thursday night and Sunday

Castro Expels Monks from Venezuela.

Caracas: A decree has been issued by President Castro expelling from

Maracaibo ten Spanish Capuchin monks, who preached in favor of the bers escaped on a stolen railway veloci- re-establishment of clerical power over civil authority. Can Use Flag for Advertising. Albany, N. Y .: That portion of the flag law enacted by the legislature of 1903 which prohibits the use of the > Parry Elected President. Pittsburg, Pa.: At the final session Indianapolis was re-elected president.

Jacob McPike of New York city.

Secretary Moody at Fort Morgan, Ala. Mobile, Ala.: Secretary of the Navy W. H. Moody, Senators Hale, Penrose.

Ohio Coal Miners Strike. Zanesville, O.: Because of the failout on a strike Monday.

THE VATICAN AUTHORITIES | Missouri Doings

ATTACKS PATENT MEDICINES

Procident Criticises Temperance People for Indorsing Them.

St. Louis: At the session of the Missouri State Medical Association in the president, Doctor William G. Moore, addressed the delegates on the subject | session. of so-called patent medicines, which, he said, contained from 25 to 50 per day, addressed the convention. Only cent of alcohol.

the system as whisky.

A symposium on appendicitis and its addressed the comrades at the mornarious stages were discussed by Doc- ing session and also tonight. ors R. Y. Tupper, N. B. Carson, Har-Candless, H. Tubolske, C. M. Nicholson lacob Geiger and O. B. Campbell of St. oseph.

Owing to the length of the program t was not ended within the time limit, and the remainder occupied the attenion of the delegates at Thursday morn-

Dr. Jabez N. Jackson of Kansas City was elected president of the association. It is the first time in the history of the association that the president has been elected without the presentathe morning the judicial council held a meeting, at which Dr. C. H. Nicholson of St. Louis was re-elected secretary of the association. Dr. E. J. Goodwin of St. Louis and Dr. J. Franklin Welch of Salisbury were re-elected assistant secretary and treasurer respec-

Dr. F. J. Lutz of St. Louis was elect. year's meeting was one of the best ed chairman of the judicial council, and Dr. Walter B. Dorsett of St. Louis secretary. A publication committee composed of Dr. C. M. Nicholson of St. Louis, secretary of the association, chairman; Dr. Woodson Moss of Co- ed authority by the Secretary of State lumbia, Dr. M. P. Overholser of Har- to increase its capital stock from risonville, Dr. B. Sloan of St. Joseph $4,000,000 to $10,000,000. The comand Dr. L. A. Todd of Kansas City pany will improve and extend its lines was appointed.

A meeting of the house of delegates granted the United Water, Gas and was held after the meeting of the as- Electric Company of Sedalia, with sociation at which Excelsior Springs $1,000,000 capital. The company has was selected as the place for holding consolidated Sedalia Water, Gas and the next annual meeting.

GYMNASIUM FOR CHILDREN

The Civic Improvement League to Add New Feature.

provement League last week it was de hank passed resolutions indorsing Mr. cided to equip all playgrounds with Hickman. James M. Johnson, Jr., for modern gymnasiums for the use of chil- eight years bookkeeper and assistant dren who visit the grounds.

would no doubt be available, as citizens were responding very librally. Gerard Swope, chairman of the Management Committee, reported that the is visiting his old home in this county, directors for all five playgrounds had was entertained at dinner last Wedbeen secured, although applicants for nesday at the home of George Robert-

the funds for carrying on the work

the positions are few. It was decided to have model flower Bar Association. An informal reeption gardens in all of the grounds, in charge of the children and under the direction | which was attended by prominent citiof competent instructors. The idea is zens and friends of the distinguished to make the playgrounds a source of inspiration for the neighborhood to beautify the surroundings of their homes.

State Rebekah Adjourns.

St. Louis: The state Rebekah assembly, I. O. O. F., finished its annual | Sherman Stansbury, under arrest in session Thursday evening, after elect- Chillicothe and wanted in Salt Lake ing the following officers: President, City for mayhem. Stansbury was a Mrs. Isabella Shipley, Springfield; saloonkeeper in Salt Lake City, and in vice-president, Ruby Kathan, Bucklin; a saloon brawl knocked J. W. Burnham grand warden, Mrs. Mollie Smith, down and kicked him in the eye, de-Webb City; secretary, Mrs. Allie E. Poundstone, Carterville; treasurer, Mrs. Carrie McCormack. St. Louis: chaplain, Mrs. Rhoda Mulford, St. Louis; marshal, Mrs. Frances Ring, a graduate student of philosophy and Monett; conductor, Miss Agnes Woodard, Moberly; inside guardian, Mrs. has accepted the chair of history and C. E. Winters, Warrensburg; outside education at the university of Misguardian. Mrs. Florence T. Simmons, souri. Prof. Graves was president of Fulton; executive committee, Mrs. the university of Wyoming from 1896 Emma Logan of Kansas City, Mrs. L. to 1898, and of the university of Wash-U. De Bolt of Trenton and Mrs. Nellie ington from 1898 to 1903.

Colemen of Marionville.

Missiuri Wins From Nebraska. Nebraska in the annual debate at Commission Company, which was raid-Kirksville Thursday night, between ed at the Gay building several months the state normal schools of Kirks- ago, was found guilty of using the ville. Mo., and Peru. Neb., on the mails to defraud by a jury in the Fedquestion, "Resolved, That the labor eral District Court and will be senmions, in their practical operations, tenced by Judge Adams. are antagonistic to the general welfare." Missouri had the negative. The judges were Superintendent Bowen of Fort Scott, Kan.; George W. Earhart of Quincy, Ill., and L. M. Garrett of Moulton, Iowa, Ben Ali Guthrie of Macon was moderator, Westboro Post Office Robbed. Westboro, Mo.: Thieves entered the post office last week and robbed the safe of $183 in cash and $396 in stamps. Nitroglycerin was used on the safe. It was evidently the work | years, old. of professionals. Four strangers boarded a fast freight at Norwich, Ia., twenty miles north of here, at 6:25 a. m. They carried a bundle in a newspaper and a telescope valise. They were wet up to the knees and had been married to the wife who surappeared to have been up all night.

There is no other clew.

Hannibal Bonds Registered. Jefferson City, Mo.: State Auditor Albert O. Allen has registered $100,000 from Europe announces the death of for electric light and power purposes.

at the rate of 4 per cent. Rev. T. L. Minturn. St. Joseph, Mo.: Rev. T. L. Minturn, for 40 years a resident of Amazonia, died there Sunday, aged 86. He was one of the oldest Odd Fellows in the of acquittal in the case against C. P.

Battleship Missouri Stands Test. Washington: The naval inspection board which was on the Missouri on Rogers, 10 years old, of Webb City, ner final run reports that after a forty- | was found on the Midway Park eleceight-hour trip to sea everything was tric railway bridge here Saturday. The in first-class condition and that the lad had climbed over the bridge huntship passed the successful test. To Increase Captital Stock.

Jefferson City, Mo.: The Secretary of State has granted authority to the its capital stock from $700,000 to $1,-

JERE DOW COMMANDER

Col. Van Horne Addresses Veterans on His Eightieth Birthday.

Lexington, Mo.: Thursday's session of the G. A. R. encampment and wom-Y. M. C. A. parlors Wednesday the en's relief corps were business ones, all business being transacted in executive

Col. Van Horne, 80 years old Thursthree of his old comrades are present. He criticised members of various Two hundred and forty-one delegates emperence organizations who have attended this meeting. Thanks were iven their indorsement to these drugs, extended to citizens of Lexington and which, he said, were as harmful to Mulligan posts for entertainment. Gen. John C. Black, commander in chief,

Officers for the coming year were vey G. Mudd, F. J. Lutz, W. M. Mc- elected as follows: Jere T. Dow, Kansas City, department commander; J. of St. Louis, J. D. Griffith, J. N. Jack- V. Martin, S. V.; John B. Burns, Lexson and C. Lester Hall of Kansas City, ington, J. V.; Dr. Edward Borch, St. Louis, medical examiner; J. T. Ferrel, chaplain; Thomas B. Rodgers, St. Louis, A. A. general and quartermaster. Council of administration-Ernest Rottoeck, Henry Fairbank, Franz P. Becker, F. I. Withaup and J. P. Tracey. Delegates to national encampment at Boston, August 15: J. W. Moore, M. M. Rice, Hubert Munchrath, H. E. Robinson, G. W. Travis, G. A. Douglass, Ben Warner, Albion P. Pease, T. H. Hagerty, George Hays, E. tion of more than one name. Later in R. Bates and Sol. Bochin. Alternates were also chosen.

> Next year's encampment will be held at Brookfield The assistant adjutant general's report showed a membership on December 31, 1903, of 9,250, and 295 posts; 281 deaths during the year; 391 gains by muster during the year. This yet held.

> > To Increase Capital Stock.

Jefferson City, Mo.: The Bell Telephone Company of Missouri was grantthroughout the State. A charter was Electric companies.

Cashier Hickman Resigns.

Monroe City, Mo.: James T. S. Hickman has resigned as cashier of the Monroe City Bank after twenty years' service, to accept the secretaryship of the Hannibal Trust Company and man-St. Louis: At a meeting of the Play- ager of the savings department of the cashier, was elected to fill the vacancy

The Finance Comittee reported that | left by Mr. Hickman.

L. B. Wilfy Is Entertained. Mexico, Mo.: L. R. Wilfly, Attorney ney General of Philippine Islands, who son, former president of the Missourl was held in his honor in the evening.

visitor.

Dockery Grants Requisition. Jefferson City, Mo.: Governor Dockery has honored a requisition issued by the Governor of Utah for the return of stroying his sight.

Prof. Graves Coming to U. of M. Chicago, Ill.: Prof. Frank P. Graves. pedagogy at the university of Chicago.

W. J. Peck Found Guilty. St. Louis: William J. Peck, presi-Kirksville, Mo.: Missouri won over | dent of the Merchants' Brokerage and Nagel-Paule. St. Charles, Mo.: Miss Esther Paule, eldest daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Edward Paule, and Phillip G. Nagel were married at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening.

St. Charles, Mo .: The dead body of Thomas W. Howell, aged 80 years, was found in the woods at the Dardenne creek bridge, three miles northeast of New Melle, last week, by a boy 12 California, Mo.: Calvine Moad, a Aged Man Found Dead in Woods.

Mexican war veteran, died near California last week, aged 89 years. He vives him and is five months his senior, seventy-one years.

Teacher Dies in Europe. Warrensburg, Mo.: A cablegram

bonds, issued by the city of Hannibal | Miss Anna Powers, who went abroad from this city a few months ago. Miss The bonds are 5-20s, and bear interest | Powers was a member of the faculty of the Warrensburg State Normal

C. P. Hawkins Acquitted. Campbell, Mo.: At 2 o'clock Sunday

State and was once Grand Master of Hawkins, who killed Harry Cover on morning the jury returned a verdict the street here January 15 last. Missouri Boy Electrocuted. Joplin, Mo .: The dead body of Harry by the trolley wire. Fourteen Are Graduated at Mexico. Mexico, Mo.: E. B. Craighead, presidress to the Mexico High School grading birds' eggs and was electrocuted

Maryville and St. Joseph Railroad, dent of the State Normal School at with offices at Maryville, to increase Warrensburg, delivered the annual aduates who numberd fourteen.

MISSOURI G. A. R. ELECTS